Many have given of themselves in helping us to stand where we do today. We admire their intellect and scholarship; we are grateful for their sincere interest in our need for success and for the standards they have helped us to establish and maintain. One such man we believe to possess these qualities; therefore, we dedicate the 1969 WE-HI-WA to Mr. Donald C. Iseley.

There are many silent rooms that would drive one to complete dullness if it were not for the communication of the people who make up Western. We intrude this silence as we return to finish the undone, facing new challenges with our minds harboring new hopes and dreams that will become realities. The chatter fills the air as we eagerly share our ideas and interests. With open minds, and our faculty to guide us, we seek every possibility of a path to knowledge. Taking an active part in school activities brings fellowship and a sense of belonging. Corresponding with other people at Western High School helps us, the students, to discover the answer to "Who am I?" and "Where am I going?"

The 1968-1969 WE-HI-WA is presented to you in an attempt to reveal what "Warriors Are Talking About."

Gridiron Performances.

These Senior players helped with the success of our football team.

Western High School presented a new look in its football program for the 1968 season. Led by mature upperclassmen and many capable underclassmen players, the Western Warriors under Coach Jim Stout had a highly successful year. The Warriors opened the season with a 7–6 triumph over highly rated Southern High School and went on to win six consecutive games. The Warriors managed to have the most successful football team in the past two years at Western by accomplishing a 7–3 record for the season. With many qualified players returning Coach Stout will have his boys battling for the conference title in 1969. Congratulations . . . .

Perhaps this closing victory means a better outlook for our future varsity team.

Tim Collins, Wayne Hawkins, and Kenneth Woody lead the Junior Varsity teammates in their battle for victory.

Cheerleaders Create Enthusiasm.

Each year at the end of April, the student body of Western High School elects twelve girls to represent them as Varsity Cheerleaders. These girls pledge to uphold high goals and moral standards. No cheerleader is allowed to smoke, drink, or use profane language at any time while a member of the squad. The cheerleaders begin practices in the summer and continue them once a week during the school year.

Margaret Wagoner, assisted by Shari Cook, led the squad as they made posters for ballgames and other cheerleading sponsored activities, decorated the gym for the annual homecoming dance, sold stickers for home football games, and boosted the school spirit at pep rallies and ballgames.

Mrs. Betty Reynolds assisted the Varsity Cheerleaders as an advisor. She attended all the ballgames and helped the girls at practice.

Every year at the beginning of the fall term the Junior Varsity cheerleaders are chosen. Nine girls and one alternate are selected from the ninth and tenth grades to represent the Junior Varsity football and basketball teams.

This year's J.V. squad, headed by chief Pam Smart and co-chief Lynn Claar, are proud to be the owners of new uniforms. Much planning and consideration was taken before the completion of the uniforms.

Serving as the squad's advisor is a newcomer to the Western faculty, Mrs. Sandra Bayliff. Mrs. Bayliff is enthusiastic and always ready to help when needed.

In addition to their cheering duties the J.V. cheerleaders assist the athletic department by selling football programs at Varsity games.

Coach Larrell Forbis is one of the brightest young coaches in the Mid-State Conference.

The 1968-69 season started with a show of power as the Warriors won their first six games and swept through the Christmas holidays as the only undefeated team in the Mid-State 3-A Conference. In the mid-season, however, the Warriors experienced trouble hitting the basket and lost several key games. Spirits were lifted at the end of the season as another surge of power made the Warriors victors in six hard fought conference games. There are still several games to be played and excellent chance for conference champions, as at present time the Warriors have a firm hold on second place.

Endless determination and hard practice combined to produce the '68-69 Warriors—a team which, even though outclassed by many schools, gave each opponent it played a hard fight. At present time the J.V.'s were holding a 13-3 record. The Warriors are ranked as one of the top contenders for the conference title.

Valuable experience, which will strengthen the '69-70 season, was gained by every J.V. player.

Under the direction of Coach Jim Stout, each practice was spent in the determination to win.

Each track meet was greeted by tough competition, which is vital for gaining experience.

Student Council Is A Link

Under the leadership of Johnny Westafer, the Student Council's goal was the establishment of a more effective organization. Emphasis was placed upon creating a better faculty-student rapport by working together.

A Social Concerns Committee was formed in hopes that students could work some of their problems out by themselves and submit their solutions to the administration for approval.

This year the We-Hi-Wa Staff worked diligently in preparation of the 1968-1969 We-Hi-Wa.

The staff consists of students from all four classes. They do many useful tasks such as planning layouts and write-ups, selling ads and subscriptions, typing, and just collecting memories for our annual.

Beginning their work in the summer, Linda Butler and Shari Cook worked industriously throughout the year. Karen Hurlocker gained experience in publishing an annual by assisting our co-editors.

After the school year gets underway the staff meets to choose the type of paper, cover, colors, and dedication. This sets the pace for the rest of the year.

The staff works long and hard hours to produce an annual of which you can be proud.

The National Honor Society is composed of students whose character, leadership, scholarship, and service make them outstanding in their school and community. Helping to develop these qualities in fellow students is one of the Society's main objectives, and its members strive to set good examples which others may be proud to follow.

One of the National Honor Society's projects is the publishing of the Student Directory every two years. Having completed payments for the activity bus, the N.H.S. is seeking new ways to serve Western with the profit from its annual Christmas Carnival.

Interact Campaigns For The Scoreboard.

The Interact Club was designed to promote international understanding and to render service to the school and community. The club is sponsored by the Burlington Rotary Club. Dr. W. W. Snyder, of the Elon Home for Children, acts as a consultant for the club while Mr. Larry Rayfield is the club adviser.

Last spring, the Western High School Chapter of the Interact Club was represented at the convention held in Smithfield, North Carolina. This was the first Interact Convention ever held in North Carolina. Three of the seven state officers elected were from Western and Williams High School.

The Scoreboard Fund Drive, started and co-ordinated by the Interact Club, took the place of the club's fund raising project this year. The club is again serving the school by cleaning the gym after the home basketball games.

One of the most important assets in the functioning of Western High School is the bus drivers. Transporting students to and from school each day is a tremendous undertaking for the driver.

Proper selection, adequate training, and close supervision of all bus drivers account for the safety which these drivers maintain. The requirements for a bus driver include classroom work, road training and no traffic violations against them.

"Toward New Horizons"

Future Homemakers of America have as their motto "Toward New Horizons", which summarizes their purpose: To learn to live better today in order to enrich their lives and the lives of their families in the future. The varied activities they undertake give them valuable experience and training in preparation for their future jobs as "homemakers." The F.H.A. emblem symbolizes that the homes of the future are in the hands of the youth today. The club flower is a red rose.

Some of the projects of the F.H.A. during the year were: making typewriter covers for the commercial department and buying roses to plant around the fence of the football field.

They also look forward each year to going to the district rally in Greensboro and the state rally in Raleigh.

"All types of music at its best" is an established fact, not just a slogan, for the Western Alamance "Choraleers."

Rock 'N Roll, Country and Western, Folk, Spiritual, Jazz, Blues, Ballads, Broadway Show Tunes, Barbershop Harmony, Novelty Tunes, Mood Music, Sacred or Secular, from Major Works or to selections of thirty seconds in length—if it is written or arranged for vocal groups, the "Choraleers" will sing it.

The "Choraleers" goals and achievements are a source of pride for the community as well as for past and present members. The "Choraleers" have performed for numerous area churches, civic clubs, schools, and business and professional organizations. They made three appearances at the recent New York World's Fair. Having been declared "North Carolina Goodwill Ambassadors" by the Honorable Dan K. Moore, Governor of North Carolina, the "Choraleers" departed by air, June, 1968, on their first European Goodwill Concert Tour.

The European tour included programs for radio broadcast, USO Shows, a concert in Amersham, England, participation in the Twenty-Second Annual International Musical Eisteddfod in Llangollen, Wales, and a concert of American music on the convention program of the Eighth International Conference of the International Society for Music Education in Dijon, France. As one of the four choral groups representing the United States on the convention program of the International Society for Music Education, the "Choraleers" triumph on foreign soil reached its high point when their concert of American music for music educators throughout the world was applauded for three encores.

The "Choraleers" were very successful as Goodwill Ambassadors for North Carolina and the United States. They made many new friends throughout Europe and received invitations to return. The "Choraleers" are looking forward to June, 1970, and a return visit to Central and Northern Europe.

Through their many appearances and performances the "Choraleers" have become acquainted with State Senator Ralph Scott, Congressman L. Richardson Preyer, Senator B. Everett Jordan and the Honorable Robert W. Scott, Governor of North Carolina. While singing for the Governor at his Hawfield's residence, an invitation to sing at the Capitol was extended the "Choraleers."

"He's Got The Whole World in His Hands," the "Choraleers" second record album made up of Folk, Country-Western and spirituals has enjoyed tremendous student body and public acceptance.

Last year, one of the "Choraleers," Miss Deborah Jones, participated as a contestant in the "Miss Burlington" Pageant. This year the Choraleers will be featured in the opening and guest entertainment section of the Pageant.

In six memorable years the "Choraleers" have appeared extensively throughout the area, served as a demonstration chorus for the N. C. Music Educators Convention, appeared at the N. Y. World's Fair, represented North Carolina as official "Goodwill Ambassadors" to Europe, and made two record albums. In just six years, all this and more was possible because of the outstanding Western High School students who made up one of the finest choruses ever heard. Only time will tell what the future holds for the matchless Choraleers.

CHORUS I

Following their appearance on the annual Christmas program, this year's Chorus I students are making preparations to enter the Ensemble (vocal groups less than twenty singers) Contest at Durham, North Carolina.

Barbara Garrison and Benny Younger, two Chorus I soloists, will be singing in the Solo Division. The group also plans to compete in the North Carolina District Choral Contest held in Greensboro.

The Chorus is concentrating on developing high-level music skills. In addition to vocal development, and performing and reading through individual selections, the chorus is anticipating the new experience of preparing a major work.

Fifty per cent of the members of Chorus I are finalizing plans to attend the Annual North Carolina Summer High School and College Choral Workshop. The workshop has a membership of 350 singers throughout North Carolina. During the workshop many members of Chorus I and Chorus II spend a week living in the dormitories at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, North Carolina.

CHORUS II

The Chorus II members made their first appearance this school year in the annual Western Christmas program. A January student body assembly, featuring spirituals by Chorus II and "Ghost Riders in the Sky" (a cowboy legend) by the new "Troubadors"—Ralph Gilliam, Max Isley, George Moody, David White, and Mike White—was well received by the student body.

Members of Chorus II and Chorus I sponsored the "Varsity Men's Glee Club" from North Carolina State University at Raleigh, North Carolina.

The seventy-five voice male choir, directed by Mr. Milton Bliss, presented an outstanding program of music.

Members of the male chorus were overnight guests of Western Chorus members and friends.

The Western Chorus members are looking forward to hosting another seventy-five voice male chorus from Indian Springs, Alabama.

The vocal Ensemble contest at Durham and the Choral contest at Greensboro were entered this year.

The singers in Chorus II are making considerable progress with the musicianship drive. By year's end the singers expect to become acquainted with many of the well-known major works in addition to becoming familiar with many individual numbers of all catagories.

The annual summer North Carolina Choral Workshop at Chapel Hill will include a large percentage of Chorus II members.

Class Of '69

In September of 1965, we arrived at Western wide-eyed and eager. We made new friends and elected our officers. Several were chosen as Prom Waiters and Waitresses.

When we became sophomores, we no longer felt like outsiders. As upper classmen, we finally sensed that we belonged. We eagerly plunged into Junior Varsity sports and cheerleading, clubs, and all other extracurricular activities.

Our Junior year was one of our most memorable. Many of our Junior Varsity athletes won berths on our Varsity squads. We sold magazines to finance our prom—the highlight of the year. But the best was yet to come. As the climax of our exciting year, long-awaited classrings arrived and were placed on our fingers with pride.

Now, as Seniors, we look back over the past three years with happiness, but also with sadness. Our high school career has finally come to a close. But we leave Western with many good memories that will never be forgotten. The honors gained, the tears shed, and the hard work put forth are but a part of the reminiscences that we shall have. With pride and dignity, our class of 1969 says farewell to the halls of Western High.

Class Of '70

For three years, the class of '70 has developed leadership characteristics enabling us to achieve recognition as a vital part of Western High School. We have participated in the functioning of our Student Council, service clubs, athletic programs, and other extracurricular activities.

During our first year at Western, we were known as "green freshmen" striving for a part of Western; as Sophomores, we yelled proudly, "We're from Western High School, and no one can be prouder." We were definitely Warriors!

As our Junior year passes, many events will bring us cherishable memories. Selling magazines made it possible to honor the Seniors with the Junior-Senior Prom. To further our knowledge of United States History, we toured Williamsburg and Jamestown, Virginia. Together, as a class, we begin to prepare ourselves for the future by taking the PSAT. One of the highlights of the year is the arrival of our classrings, which serve as a symbol for one of our most important achievements. Next year, we'll take our big step, graduation, as "Mighty Seniors" with high hopes and the determination to make our graduation the conclusion of a worthwhile and rewarding year.

Slowly, but surely, we climb the ladder to the top as we gain class status and the honored title of "Sophomores." The steps between are thrilling, and each presents a challenge as the Western High School world engulfs us.

We participate in clubs and school activities with a spirit and vivaciousness known only to the young. Our J.V.'s fight long and hard for a well earned victory. We await various school dances and parties with tense excitement, and the Prom is a future anticipation.

As a group of happy, determined, ambitious sophomores, we continually strive to become a class that will be remembered.

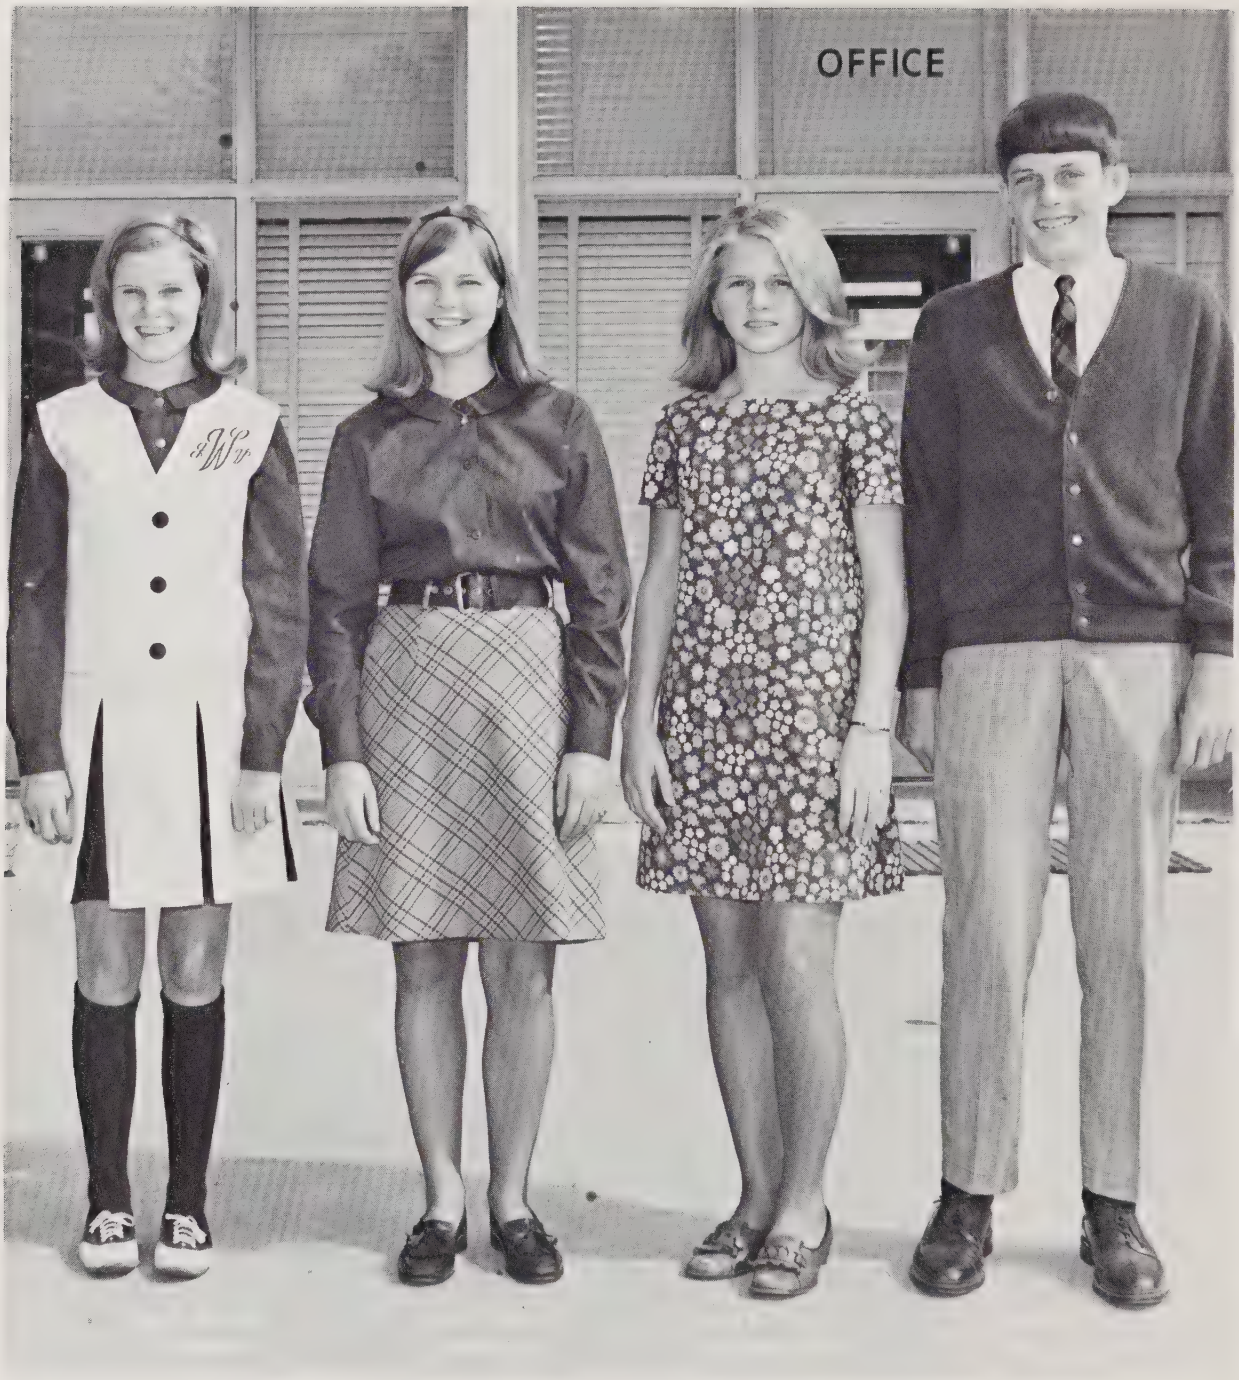
Class Of '72



With great determination, we entered our first year in high school. There were many adjustments to be made. First we had to get used to the title of "green freshmen." But somehow we didn't mind it too much, because it proved we had at last reached high school. Later our football players were given recognition on the J.V. football team. Several freshman girls were chosen to be cheerleaders. Many ninth grade students joined the pep club. More and more freshmen entered into the activities of the F.F.A., F.T.A., F.H.A., and Student Council.

At the completion of our freshman year, we look with anticipation toward the greater challenges of becoming upperclassmen.

Editor's Note

As co-editors, we would like to extend a sincere thank you to all those who have helped make this publication of the We-Hi-Wa possible.

Our indebtedness to Mrs. Barbara Roark, our adviser, could never be fully expressed. We respect greatly her devotion and the guidance she gave the staff. She met the trials and tribulations with unbelievable patience.

The willingness and co-operation of each and every one of our staff members is to be commended. Without the perseverance of our typists and the satisfying accomplishments of Mr. Lewis Parrish and Joseph Hutchins, we could not have met our deadlines.

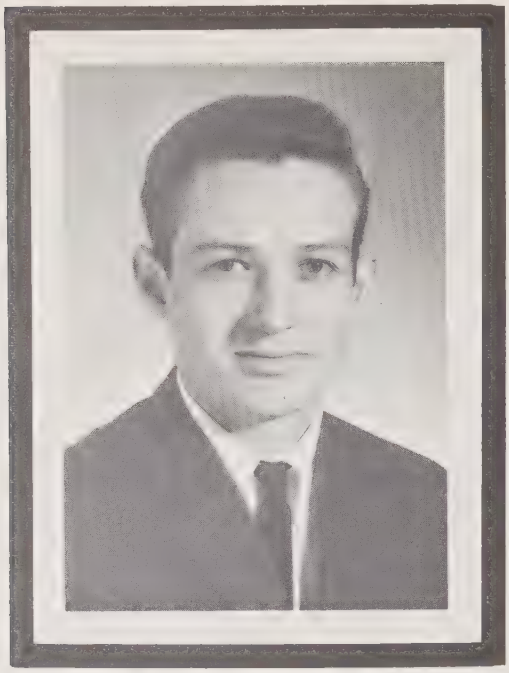
The patience and assistance of the teachers during picture-taking and distribution of the annual was greatly appreciated.

The experience of editing your annual has been an enlightening one. Let us assure you that the time and effort that went into the yearbook was rewarded when the realization of a goal, a completed annual, was achieved.

We would like to thank you for the opportunity that you gave us. It has been our privilege to work together in presenting this year's events to you. We hope that this yearbook serves its purpose with your approval and to your satisfaction.

Linda and Shari

IN MEMORIAM



Gary Prince

"Solid devotions resemble the rivers which run under the earth—they steal from the eyes of the world to seek the eyes of God; and it often happens that those of whom we speak least on earth, are best known in heaven." – Caussin.
